All Eyes on Bank Building

The pandemic has slowed down human activity but it hasn't stopped historic buildings from decaying. We're trying to remedy that with our SaveBOE campaign!

We had a long discussion with Jeff Mudgett of PMS Architects about what we want in the Bank of Everglades building and how best to accomplish our goals. His practice is working on schematic layouts and 3-D drawings. We hope to be able to show the results at the beginning of December and can then get on with serious construction.

One idea is to draw attention to the back (east) side of the building which is what people see from the Circle. In the early 1920s, the focus was from the river where most traffic took place but that has changed in modern times.

We had a successful Exclusive Tour of the old Bank on October 30 when guests came from Naples and Ft Myers to enjoy lunch at the Rod & Gun before a walk-through of the old building guided by Patty Huff.

And, we're looking forward to the Music Festival on November 6. Our thanks to all the performers and volunteers for contributing their time to raise funds for this worthy project.

BOARD MEETINGS

The Board of Directors meets at 9:00 a.m. on the first Monday of the month. The next meeting will be on Monday December 6, in the Visitor Center. Members are welcome to attend and contribute ideas. For info, phone Kathy at (954) 662-7003.

Who was Mr. Watson?

We focus on this larger-than-life local figure with an illustrated talk at our "Welcome-Back" event and then two performances of a re-enactment of his killing at the Smallwood Store in Chokoloskee where he was shot down by a group of locals.

The event, which really took place in 1910, was made notorious in the 1990 book Killing Mister Watson by Peter Matthiessen and his subsequent volumes with the same theme

Our history lecture, which digs into Watson's past, is on Friday, November 19, at 2:00pm in the Lighthouse Club at Everglades Isle. Admission is free but reservations are requested. Phone Marya at (239) 695-2905 or email us on ESHP@hotmail.com to save your places.

The play, which was written by Larry Block who is coming from Atlanta to produce it for us on Saturday, December 11. It is a fundraiser to benefit the Bank of Everglades renovation effort and the Smallwood Store. Tickets for reserved seats should be booked in advance at our special website www.SaveBOE.com so we know how many chairs we need. It will be a fun day and admission to the old Smallwood trading post is included.

MUSEUM UPDATE

In keeping with the venue for our event at the Smallwood Store, the subject of the Third Thursday Talk on November 18 at 2:00pm. is "Trading Posts of South Florida". There is no charge and reservations are not required but seating is "first-come-first-served" so get there early.

The Museum is open from 9am to 4pm on Tuesday through Saturday and admission is free. For info, call (239) 252-5026.

NEW SIGNS POINT THE WAY

Our Visitor Center is open again, thanks to volunteers who are ready to answer questions about what to do and where to go in our local area.

The new signs in the median of the road lead drivers from the Post Office all the way around the Circle to our office at 207 West Broadway opposite the Rod & Gun. The phone number there is (239) 232-0473 and the website with lots of info is www.VisitEvergladesCity.com.
